"THE GREAT CIRCUS MYSTERY"
Chapter #4 "The Plunge of Peril"
Featuring BONOMO

* * *

Landow falls over the cliff and a construction gang, together with the mystery-man dash down and help him to his feet. They aid the Mystery-man in getting him up the cliff. Then the two ride away towards the circus.

The announcer is on the verge of declaring the home pride the victor when Landow enters, leaps over the ropes and strips for action. While this is happening, the hippodrome race occurs. Trixie is rescued from the hoofs of the horses.

Landow battles vehemently and wins. Adams and the local gambler are stunned when they realize that their dirty trick will not gain them anything. Landow is acclaimed by the circus performers who now carry him off and cash in on their bets.

The mystery-man searches Adams' tent. Not finding what he wants there he tells the Hindus. Adams meanwhile searches the Hindu's tent and finds nothing. He frames to get the girl privately, believing she has the missing valuables. He lures her to a cabin.

He disguises himself as the mystery-man. The real mystery-man enters. As they battle, a rock is pushed over the side of a cliff. It falls on the cabin.

At this time, Landow, battling Adams' gang, falls to the street from a wire on which he is walking.
